Dated 14-5-2013
Read the following:-

1. Circular Memo No.7034/151/A1/SMPC.II/2012, dated 17.4.2012 of Finance Dept.
2. G.O.Rt.No.90, Law Dept., dated 18-1-2013
3. Lr.No.25/Admn 1/2013, dated 26/2/2013 of the Administrator, Govt. Pleader's Office, High Court, Hyderabad.
4. Letter No.192/2013, dated 28.2.2013 received from Advocate General, High Court of A.P., Hyderabad.

ORDER:

In the letter fourth read above, the Advocate General, High Court of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has forwarded the letter 3rd read above, wherein the Administrator, Government Pleaders Office, Hyderabad stated that in G.O.2nd read above the Government have permitted the Administrator, Government Pleaders Office to continue the contract appointments made against the vacancies in the regular cadre upto 31-3-2013. The total cadre strength of the Government Pleaders' Office is 139. There are 62 vacancies in the regular cadre as on date, due to retirement of personnel on attaining the age of superannuation etc. As against the 62 vacancies in the regular cadre, 54 persons are working on contract basis in terms of the orders issued by the Government from time to time, the last continuation of which are ordered upto 31-3-2013 in the G.O. 2nd read above, with a direction to take necessary immediate steps to fill the regular posts by way of direct recruitment as per rules. He stated that unless the present arrangement of contract appointments is continued until the posts are filled on regular basis, it will be very difficult to run the Office.

2. He has further stated that the strength of the Government Pleaders increased from (6) in 1980 to (34) in 2012. However, there is no proportionate increase in the staff and the office is functioning with minimum staff. Each Government Pleader is provided with a Clerk, Stenographer, Record Assistant/Office Subordinate. Thus most of the personnel are working with the Government Pleaders, barring a few who work in OP and Judicial Sections. The duties attached to the persons working with the Government Pleader is very arduous and time bounded and these posts cannot be kept vacant till it is filled in by regular appointees. Hence there is imperative need to continue the present arrangement of contract appointments till the posts are filled on regular basis. He has therefore requested to continue the present arrangement in respect of the following posts during the financial year 2013-2014 i.e. upto 31-3-2014.

3. Government have sanctioned the following category of posts to engage on contract basis against the regular clear vacancies and they were continued from time to time by
